

Photo: Vienna Classic Days/Facebook

A weekend of classic cars in Vienna

Published: 25 Aug 2016 10:01 GMT+02:00

A parade of classic cars will once again take to the streets this weekend in Vienna as part of the city's annual Classic Days event.

- Chinese Lantern Festival delights and amazes (24 Aug 16)

The parade of old-timer cars kicks off on Saturday at 11am on the Ring outside Rathaus before travelling through the city.

For those who want a day out of the city centre, the classic cars will also be driving around Heuriger land, through Cobenzl, Kahlenberg, Leopoldsberg and onto Klosterneuburg.

On Sunday morning the classic cars will set off again from Rathaus and driver to a vintage picnic at Donaupark.

Most read Most comments

1. Austrian minister describes Merkel as 'irresponsible'
2. A taste of Michelangelo in the heart of Vienna
3. Over 50 cats go missing in Austrian town
4. Cops nab accomplice in Austrian €50m caper

Sponsored Article

Five things Americans should know about voting abroad

National

Beware these passport scams

Sponsored Article

Jordan: where history meets